Welcome to BOOMERAID!

You need:

512k Amiga

Kickstart disk (version 1.2)

Loading Instructions:

1. Turn on computer and monitor
2. Insert a Kickstart disk into the disk drive
3. When the Workbench prompt appears, eject the Kickstart disk and insert the Boomeraid disk into the disk drive.

The program will load automatically.

Once the program has loaded, you will be asked to input a number from page 2 of this leaflet.

You will then be given a choice — select via mouse or joystick (left/right) . . .

1 The Game

Brief instructions may be viewed by pressing "HELP" once the game has loaded. For full instructions, see Chapter 2 of the "Flight Path Tutor" notes.

2 Flight Path Tutor

A complete written and graphical tutorial, including game and tutor instructions, explanations and hints.

Boomeraid automatically reconfigures itself for expanded Amigas.

Machines with 512k expansion or more will have extra features such as printout facilities for Game Certificates, Status screens, etc.

Instructions for adjusting printer settings are given in Chapter 1 of the Flight Path Tutor notes.
